

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name	GERRIT R BASSON
Profession	Civil Engineer
Position	Professor, Head Water Division & Director of the Institute for Water and Environmental Engineering (IWEEUSU), Department of Civil Engineering, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa;
Specialisation	River hydraulics, fluvial morphology and the design of hydraulic structures.
Date of birth	24 August 1962
Nationality	South African
Identity number	620824 5208 080
Academic qualifications	PhD, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa		1996
	MEng, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa		1990
	BEng (Hons) (Civil), University of Pretoria, South Africa		1988
	BEng (Cum Laude) University of Pretoria, South Africa		1986
Professional membership	Engineering Council of South Africa (Registration No. 910052)		1991
Languages	Afrikaans - mother tongue
	English - speak, read, write

Key experience

Prof G R Basson has 28 years' experience mainly in the fields of river hydraulics, fluvial morphology and the design of hydraulic structures.

International Committees

ICOLD International Commission on Large Dams, Vice President	2012 to 2015
ICOLD Chairman of Sedimentation committee	2004 to 2010
UNESCO-IHP-ISI International Sedimentation Initiative Task Force	2004 to date
WASER Council Vice president, World Association of Sedimentation and Erosion research	2010 to 2013

National Committees and membership

SANCOLD SA National Committee on Large Dams Management Committee	2002 to date
SAICE SA Institute of Civil Engineering member	1987 to date
SAAE SA Academy of Engineering, Fellow	2014

Countries of Work Experience:

Algeria, Angola, Australia, Botswana, Burkina Faso, China, Indonesia, Kenya, Lesotho, Malawi, Malaysia, Mozambique, Namibia, Nigeria, Sierra Leone, South Africa, Swaziland, USA, Zambia and Zimbabwe.